

Core courses

- Approaches to e-learning
- Using tools effectively for creating online teaching resources
- Creating a digital presence: sharing and publishing your teaching resources online
- Introducing social science research methods in languages, linguistics and area studies

Practitioners workshops

- English for Academic Purposes
- Independent learning
- Interpreting
- Internationalisation
- Employability
- Literature and culture
- E-learning
- Coaching and mentoring

Conferences

- E-learning symposium
26-27 January 2012
University of Southampton
- Sustaining a global society:
languages of the wider world
29-30 March 2012
SOAS, University of London
- Life & work in academia:
an event for new and
aspiring lecturers
12 April 2012
Aston University
- Language futures:
languages in HE
5-6 July 2012

Tailored workshops

- Half-day or full-day workshops for your department on one of the following themes:
 - Language teaching
 - independent learning
 - interpreting
 - internationalisation
 - employability
 - e-learning
 - assessment
 - education research techniques
- A bespoke workshop covering a theme of your choice

Student survey

- A national discipline-specific survey of your students. Questions will cover:
 - the year abroad experience
 - L2 teaching
 - confidence
 - progress
 - resources
 - curriculum
 - overall course experience.
- A report on responses sent to participating institutions.